

CALGARY BERNERWALK SCHEDULE 2009

To make planning easier I've put together a schedule of dates and locations for Berner walks in 2009. The walks are scattered throughout the city so you should have at least one or two that is very convenient and one or two that is an across the city drive for you. The walks will all be on Sundays.

Please keep this list for future reference.

The schedule is:

Depending on the weather in August, I will plan a "Friday night by the River" or a Sunday "morning swim."

I will post directions and maps to the parks the week prior to the walk or you can look them up in the CalgaryDogLife Bark in the Park Off Leash Guide or www.calgarydoglife.com.

Looking forward to seeing you at the walks.
